

The Marshalltown Storm Sewer Improvements project does not include any building construction or any activities that involve power use. Energy Star standards and building codes do not apply. The project will comply with all state codes.